JOB DESCRIPTION

Juvenile Probation Officer / Licensed Chemical Dependency Counselor

General Description

The position is subject to the certification requirements of the State of Texas for a Juvenile Probation Officer and must be a Licensed Chemical Dependency Counselor or LCDC Intern. The position performs professional intake and counseling services in matters relating to juveniles and their families who have been referred to the Juvenile Probation Department. The LCDC must make independent judgments within the scope of their job duties. The position requires the LCDC to work effectively with other professionals in the mental health and criminal justice field and with other professionals within the community who provide direct services to juvenile offenders and their families. The position requires the LCDC to discover presenting problems, evaluate the degree of seriousness in a given situation, recommend reasonable solutions and provide professional counseling services. Position requires tolerance to stress in moderate to considerable degrees.

Minimum Requirements

1. Be certified as a Juvenile Probation Officer with the State of Texas or meet certification requirements for a Juvenile Probation Officer within the State of Texas;
2. Must be licensed or certified by the Texas Department of State Health Services;
3. Cannot be employed as a peace officer or work as a reserve or volunteer peace officer;
4. Be at least 21 years of age;

In addition to meeting specific minimum job qualifications stated above, a person is not eligible for employment with the department if:

- (A) A person is currently subject to community supervision or parole.
- (B) A person in the last ten years has been convicted of or placed on deferred adjudication for a felony offense under the laws of this state, another state, or the United States, is currently on either felony probation or parole, or is registered as a sex offender under Chapter 62, Texas Code of Criminal Procedure. A person in the last five years has been convicted of or placed on deferred adjudication for a jailable misdemeanor offense against the laws of this state, another state, or the United States.
- (C) An individual whose certification as a juvenile probation officer, detention officer or a corrections officer has been revoked by the Texas Juvenile Justice Department shall never qualify for employment as a juvenile probation officer, detention officer, or corrections officer. An individual whose certification is currently under a suspension order issued under 341.88(d)(2) shall not qualify for employment as a juvenile probation officer, juvenile detention officer, or corrections officer as long as the suspension is in effect. An individual whose certification is currently under a suspension order issued under 341.109(a) shall not qualify for employment as a juvenile probation officer, detention officer, or corrections officer until the Department receives an order issued under Texas Family Code Section 232.013 staying or vacating the license suspension.
